The ENRICH program provides undergraduate students an opportunity to work in a lab with a professor of their choice doing experiential research.

Hands-On Training!

Get a Jump Start to your career!

Stipend may be provided!

Please email the professor of your choice and let them know you would like to enroll in the program.

Fill out the Registration form:

485-495 Directed Studies credit course